

What people said
about YaCC 2015:

"It wasn't boring!"
"Honest, raw & practical!"
"Not 'just another' conference!"
"You should've been there!"

Youth & Children's Conference

Saturday 18th June, 2016.

Adelaide Christian Centre: 27 Sturt St, Adelaide CBD

Keynote Speaker: Terry Williams

Terry is a gifted and highly sought after international teacher and speaker on ministry to children, youth and families.

Working with both SU Qld and SU International on a global training team, Terry has spoken in 70 countries across the world, helping to train and equip leaders in ministry on the issues relating to evangelism and discipleship of young people.

For further information call
SU SA on (08) 8235 9500.

For session details and online registration, scan the QR Code with your smart phone, or visit:
www.susa.org.au/yacc

Conference Electives

Elective sessions covering a range of topics from children to youth, creative arts to intergenerational ministry.
Check out the YaCC Ministry Expo during the conference!

Session 1 Options

Making disciples that make disciples

Steve Stokes

Through youth & children's ministry how do we teach and equip young people as disciples to then become disciple makers themselves.

From page to stage

Lochy Cupit

Drama, reading out loud and using creative methods to bring the Bible alive in church services, youth groups and more. How do you present God's living Word with enthusiasm and impact?

Unpacking the keynote talk

Terry Williams

If you want to hear more from our key speaker then follow up with this chance to hear more and ask your questions. Terry is one of Australia's most experienced leaders in youth & children's ministry.

Rites of passage & faith development

Hamilton McNicol

Rites of Passage were once practised by every tribe, village, and culture around the world to help adolescents transition into adulthood. In this workshop you will see how rites of passage can establish real community and make great men and women.

Session 2 Options

A Church for all ages

Chris Battistuzzi

The church is a family of all ages. Being inclusive means being child focused, not just child friendly. Methods to instigate change from the top down.

Youth and the Bible

Travis Johnson

Experience and learn a unique way for youth to engage with the Bible that brings all their senses to life, and foster a deep sense of community and conviction in being missional.

'White Faith' is dying faith

Sam Chan

Australian church statistics reveal that up to 98% of new believers come from the migrant and refugee community. It's time to embrace our new neighbours or die. Learn the how to's of being a truly multicultural church.

Young people and the Holy Spirit

Glenn Cupit

The Holy Spirit is vital to living a healthy Christian life. How do we help the Holy Spirit be a tangible reality to children? Explore and develop skills in addressing this issue that is rarely dealt with.

Session 3 Options

Communicating with kids

Steve Stokes

So many ways and devices that attract kids today. How can you get through to them and keep them interested with what you are teaching?

Cultivating a leadership culture

Hamilton McNicol

The early church saw great leaders emerge, even from obscurity. In this workshop discover easy to apply principles on how leadership can be developed and cultivated in any ministry setting.

Journeying with young people & their questions about life and faith

Terry Williams

Long title, but a very big issue. We need to better connect with young people regarding current and difficult issues. How to we journey with them and not just tell them what to do?

How to have a Messy Church

Jenny Carver & Bev Beeson

Reach out to families, minister to all ages and include the little ones all in one service. Messy Church can be adapted for any & all churches. A great way to connect with non-church parents. Could you have a Messy Church?